Born and raised in Poland, Fr. Andrzej Zglejszewski (pronounced On-jay Sklay-shef-ski) attended college seminary in Bialystok and Warsaw, pursuing his studies in philosophy and theology. Following this calling, Fr. Andrzej came to the United States in 1987 to complete his studies for the priesthood at the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception in Huntington. He was ordained in 1990 and was assigned to St. Christopher's parish in Baldwin. From there, Fr. Andrzej spent eight years at St. Thomas the Apostle in West Hempstead. In June 2003 he was assigned to St. Rose of Lima where he served for four years.

Fr. Andrzej completed his graduate studies in Theology and Religious Education at Fordham University. He is also an adjunct professor at the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception and serves as a Tribunal Advocate. The passion of his priestly ministry is Adult Religious Education and Spiritual Formation. In 2007, Fr. Andrzej was appointed by Bishop Murphy to serve the diocese as the Director of the Office of Worship with residence here in St. Agnes Cathedral Parish.

In November of 2010, His Holiness Pope Benedict XVI presented Fr. Andrzej with the honorary title of Monsignor.
